FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RANDALL + HURLEY ACQUIRES MONTANA-BASED RETIREMENT SERVICES COMPANY, EMPLOYEE BENEFIT RESOURCES

SPOKANE, WA – January 10, 2018 - Randall + Hurley, a retirement services company based in Spokane, Washington, has announced their acquisition of Employee Benefit Resources of Helena, Montana. This purchase deepens Randall + Hurley's talent, broadens resources and expands their retirement services into a new market. "Culturally, this is a perfect fit and makes sense for our growing business," says Randall & Hurley President, Lynn Hurley.

Employee Benefit Resources, has been in business for 20 years and has grown to be one of the largest Third Party Administrators (TPA) firms in Montana. The office and its employees will remain in Helena, Montana, but will now be known as Randall + Hurley. "We are excited to join the Randall + Hurley family," says Kathy Sampson, founder of Employee Benefit Resources. "We've had a long-standing mutual respect for one another, so this is a perfect union for a future together."

Randall + Hurley was founded in 1995 with a simple mission: create a retirement plan consulting company that put the client first. This singular focus has helped them become the largest Third Party Administrator (TPA) consulting firm in the Inland Northwest, and recognized as a leader nationally.
